

8th Annual Connecting Campuses with Communities

IUPUI Research Academy

May 11th – 13th, 2016

IUPUI Campus Center

420 University Blvd.,

Indianapolis, IN 46202

With generous support from IUPUI Academic Affairs

Wednesday, May 11 th		Location
12:00 – 1:30 pm	Check-in and Refreshments – IUPUI Campus Center	305
1:30 – 3:00 pm	Welcome, Introductions, Orientation to FLC Approach Plenary 1: Theoretical frameworks for SL research: Generating and refining research questions (SOFAR activity) Julie Hatcher, Exec. Dir, Center for Service & Learning (CSL) Associate Professor, Lilly Family School of Philanthropy	305
3:00 – 3:15 pm	Break
3:15 – 4:30 pm	Plenary 2: Collaborative relationship mapping (CoIRM): Examining networks to advance your research and scholarship Mary Price, Director of Faculty Development, CSL	305
4:45 – 6:00 pm	Learning Community session 1: Introductions, Why are you here? What do you hope to gain? What is your initial research question? How did the CoIRM exercise help you map out your approach to a research question or working to support others in their research? Overview of homework	307: Julie/Dan 309: Bob/Lisa 306: Mary/Lina 308: Tom/Kristin
6:15 pm	Dinner – 2 options: on your own - OR - with Kristin Norris, Director of Assessment, IUPUI Office of Community Engagement
Homework: Read Chapter 1.2 from Research on Service Learning: Conceptual Frameworks and Assessment. Complete worksheet on Formulating a Research Question (adapt this worksheet as relevant to supporting your professional and scholarly goals for attending the Research Academy), which is available in the Box Account.

Prior to arrival

Read Chapter 1.1 from Research on Service Learning: Conceptual Frameworks and Assessment
Bring initial research question

Box Account

All materials, including presentations, will be accessible via the Box account at:
https://iu.app.box.com/files/0/f/7624415506/Connecting_Campuses_with_Communities_2016

Accessing WIFI

Indiana University provides AT&T wireless service to visitors free of charge on all campuses. IU students, faculty, and staff should use IU Secure. To connect, make sure your device's wireless networking (Wi-Fi) is turned on, and select the "attwifi" SSID. You may need to start your web browser to finish authenticating to AT&T; for complete directions for several different devices, see AT&T's Wireless Support.

<https://kb.iu.edu/d/azqb#visitors>

Lunch options

You can have lunch on the first floor of the Campus Center or take a 10-minute walk north on University Blvd. to 10th/Indiana for a variety of dining options (e.g., Noodles and Company, Subway, Blaze Pizza, Indian, Sushi).

Thursday, May 12 th				Location
8:00 – 8:30 am	Coffee Talk Coffee, resources, and light refreshments will be available			CE 305
8:30 – 9:00 am	Plenary 3: Research rigor and design Bob Bringle, Senior Scholar CSL, Professor Emeritus of Psychology			CE 305
9:00 – 9:30 am	Plenary 4: Rigor and design in qualitative research Lisa McGuire, Professor and Head, Department of Social Work, James Madison University			CE 305
9:30 – 10:00 am	Plenary 5: Rigor and design in quantitative research Dan Richard, Director of Faculty Enhancement, Associate Professor, Dept. Psychology, University of North Florida			CE 305
10:00 – 10:15 am	Break
10:15 – 11:45 am	Learning Community session 2: What was the value of homework template? What theories may apply to your research question? What is the data you need to gather? How can you further refine your research question or project goals? Draw your research question on large Post-It sheets to share a visual diagram.			307: Julie/Dan 309: Bob/Lisa 305: Mary/Lina 405: Tom/Kristin
11:45 – 12:45 pm	Lunch – in groups or on your own
1:00 – 1:40 pm	Concurrent Sessions A:			3 rooms
	Designing surveys for quantitative or qualitative research (307) Steven Graunke, IUPUI, Director of Institutional Research and Decision Support	Best practices for conducting program evaluation (309) Michele Hansen, IUPUI, Executive Director of Institutional Research and Decision Support	Theoretical frameworks related to the admin. of community engagement (405) Lina Dostilio, Director, Center for Community Engaged Teaching and Learning, Duquesne Univ.	Optional Consult with Bob, Dan, or Lisa (305)
2:00 – 2:40 pm	Concurrent Session B:			3 rooms
	Advanced quantitative methodology & survey research - identifying variables (307) Dan Richard	Advanced qualitative methodology (308) Lisa McGuire	Best Practices for Community Engaged Research Approaches (405) Elee Wood, IUPUI, Dir. of Museum Studies Prog.	Optional Consult with Bob or Julie (305)
3:00 – 3:40 pm	Concurrent Sessions C:			3 rooms
	Civic learning outcomes: Civic-minded graduates (307) Julie Hatcher & Kristin Norris	Strategies for engaging faculty in service learning & community engagement (308) Mary Price	Measuring community impact (405) Laura Littlepage IU School of Public and Environmental Affairs	Optional Consult with Dan or Lisa (305)
4:00 – 5:30 pm	Learning community session 3: Review colleagues' "post-it sheet" Design, methodology, and timeline			307: Julie/Dan 309: Bob/Lisa 305: Mary/Lina 405: Tom/Kristin
6:00 pm	Dinner – 2 options: on your own - OR - with Dan Richard for a discussion of inter-institutional collaboration and research

Homework - Prepare 5 minute presentation: 2-3 PPT slides on research question, design, and specific action steps over the next month and over the next year. Adjust for your professional goals in attending the Research Academy. Email to facilitator or bring presentation to the Learning Community on a flash drive.

Friday, May 13 th
8:00 – 8:30 am	Coffee Talk Coffee, resources, and light refreshments will be available		CE 305
8:30 – 9:00 am	Plenary 6: Publication outlets and strategies for engaged scholars and introduction to the International Association for Research on Service Learning and Community Engagement (IARSLCE) Bob Bringle		CE 305
9:15 – 9:45 am	Concurrent Sessions D:
	Developing an evaluation and research agenda for faculty development in service learning and community engagement (306) Mary Price	Digital Scholarship and Open Access Sharing research and scholarship in new ways (307) Kristi Palmer, Director, IUPUI University Library Center for Digital Scholarship	Working with Your Institutional Research Office (308) Tom Hahn, Research and Evaluation Specialist, IUPUI Center for Service and Learning
9:45 – 10:00 am	Break		3 rooms
10:00 – 11:45 am	Learning Community session 4: Presentations of 2-3 PPT slides of proposed research (or project to support others in conducting research) and gain feedback from peers		307: Julie/Dan 309: Bob/Lisa 305: Mary/Lina 308: Tom/Kristin
12:00 – 12:30 pm	Acknowledgements, reflections, and final questions Mary Price & Julie Hatcher		CE 305
12:30 pm	Optional lunch to join Research Academy faculty and weather permitting walk 10 minutes to Eiteljorg Sky Café on the canal – 500 W. Washington Street, Indianapolis, IN 46204		