Welcome to the SAM!

The Center for Service and Learning welcomes you to the first edition of the SAM, a newsletter created to keep all Sam H. Jones Service Scholars informed, connected, and engaged throughout the school year.

This e-newsletter is named the SAM to honor not just a great leader, Sam H. Jones, but also all of you and the outstanding work that you do: Service And Me. With your help, we will bring you relevant and fun information regarding community engagement happening around us, highlighting our
This is a newsletter for YOU, so we want your comments and ideas. What would you like to see in future issues? What topics are of interest to you? How often would you like to hear from us? Email Adam Peters for your thoughts, stories, pictures and ideas.

Pullovers and Pictures!

Thank you to everyone who was able to come to the All Scholar Welcome Event! Your participation made it a huge success and we loved meeting all of you!

If you would like to relive the evening or see what you missed, take a look at our photo booth pictures from the night!

Get your SWAG! For those of you who were not able to attend, please stop by and pick up your super cool Sam H. Jones pullover in CSL! Get here quickly to get the best choice of size!

The Center for Service and Learning is open Monday - Friday, 8:30 AM - 5:00 PM in IP 243.
The Center for Service and Learning is a great place to stop and relax between classes, find a quiet place to study, or get advice from our staff, graduate assistants, or Community Service Leaders.

So please, don't be shy! We would love to see you using our common space. Our doors are always open (well, actually from 8:30 AM-5:00 PM for the main office) and we look forward to seeing you!
