Table of Contents

Fall 2015 - Issue 2

Become the Scholar of the Week!

Program Spotlight: Fugate Scholars

Fall Event Photo Gallery

GA Spotlight: Courtney Williamson

Upcoming Opportunities You Don't Want To Miss

Don't Forget! Student Scholarship Applications for the 2016-2017 Sam H. Jones Community Service Scholarships open November 1st!

To submit ideas, photos or event information to the SAM, email Adam Peters at adapeter@iupui.edu.

Become Scholar of the Week!

Help Us to Highlight Our Greatest Asset: YOU!

What is it?
We want to get the word out to the whole universe about how great our scholars are, and we need your help! The "Scholar of the Week" showcase will allow all students, faculty, staff, and community members to see what amazing students we have here in the program!
Where will they be posted?
The "Scholar of the Week" blurbs will be posted on our Social Media platforms and our website.

To be considered:
Follow the link below, answer the couple of questions about yourself, and submit a picture of you! It should only take 5 minutes of your time.

Scholar of the Week Survey

Please help us to recruit more great scholars to the Sam Jones Family, while honoring the best part of the program: you. The only way to become a Scholar of the Week is to fill out the short form and submit a picture!

Program Spotlight: Fugate Scholars

Fugate Scholars
By Cindy Gil, Program Director

Number of Scholars: 6

Where do they serve:
Scholars tutor students at George Washington Community High School, Daniel Webster School #46, Wendell Phillips School #63, and William Penn School #49.

Unique Characteristics:
Scholars gain hands-on teaching experience by developing and implementing curriculum to prepare students for college.

Why they believe it is the "best" SHJ program:
Scholars gain the opportunity to become part of the community they are serving in as mentors, tutors, and teacher assistants. As many are first generation college students, they feel a strong connection to the students they tutor and love the ability to serve as real life examples to the achievable goal of obtaining a higher education. Additionally, working with kids is always the best!

Scholar Photo Gallery

So far this semester, our scholars have been busy! From the iServe Day of Service, the United Way Day of Caring, to the Scholar Overnight Training Retreat, Sam H. Jones Scholars have been making an impact on their community, building relationships, and developing their personal and professional skills. Check out some of their fun activities below!
GA Spotlight: Courtney Williamson
Why did you choose to become a part of the Sam H. Jones program?

I chose to be a part of Sam H. Jones when I was a freshman in undergrad. The experience shaped my career choice into the helping profession of therapy and I wanted to continue helping new and incoming students for Sam H. Jones!

Words of Advice:

Don't let anyone tell you to be someone else. You are the best you can possibly be.

If you could be any fruit or vegetable, which would you be and why?

Strawberry! They are perfect alone but even better with company. i.e. Hershey's chocolate spread.

Upcoming Opportunities You Don't Want To Miss

College Student Social Entrepreneurs Microloan Program

Do you have a great idea to better the community, environment, or beyond? If you have the entrepreneurial spirit but need the funding to get your business off the ground, this new microloan program funded through the Flagship Enterprise Center and Indiana Campus Compact might be the perfect program for you. To learn more and apply go to: http://indianacampuscompact.org/funding/microloans/

Davis IUPUI Regatta Scholarship

Available to any full time or part time undergraduate, graduate, or professional student with at least 26 credit hours and a 3.0 GPA. Scholarships are awarded based on academic performance, financial need, and leadership experience in campus wide organizations and community service. To apply, search for "scholarships" on one.iu.edu
Service + Community Leadership Summer Internship

Are you interested in a summer internship? The Institute on Philanthropy & Volunteer Service in Washington DC is now accepting applications for undergraduates passionate about service and a summer experience making a community impact. The program equips students with the practical and ethical tools needed to strengthen their leadership and professional skills. For those students who apply by the early deadline of December 10 are eligible to receive a 5% tuition discount! For more information and to apply go to: www.dcinternships.org/IPVS

Advancing Social Change: Building Your Community Organizing Tool Kit

Come together with fellow students, academic, and community members for a three-day series that presents critical tools for community organizing. Through a dynamic, hands-on training process, you will gain both a theoretical understanding of and practical skills in organizing.

Space is limited and registration is required. To find out more go to: http://csl.iupui.edu/financial-support/programs/workshops/community-organizing.shtml

---

The Sam H. Jones Community Service Scholarship, brought to you by:

Center for Service and Learning

875 W. North Street, IP 243 | csl@iupui.edu